

Scenes from SFBJ's 2022 Structures Awards (Photos)

By South Florida Business Journal Staff
Sep 25, 2022

Prominent real estate executives gathered to network, dine and celebrate success during the Business Journal's lively Structures Awards.

SFBJ held its seventh annual celebration recognizing the tri-county region's top real estate projects, deals and dealmakers Thursday at Jungle Island in Miami.

More than 180 people attended the awards program, presented by Comcast Business, with corporate sponsors Berkowitz Pollack Brant Advisors + CPAs; FPL Energy Services, a NextEra Energy company; SouthState Bank and Stiles.

The Structures Awards honor the year's most impactful projects and people in our local real estate and development industry. It honored projects with uses ranging from residential to commercial, hospitality to green projects and beyond.

The event opened with a few words from award-winning SFBJ Senior Reporter Brian Bandell. Tamika Bickham, founder of TB Media Group, then announced the 48 honorees in 16 categories.

Honorees and guests arrive at the 2022 SFBJ Structures Awards, at Jungle Island, in Miami.